All kinds of Plow Goods, any thing you need in gearing, hoes, single or double-furrows, double shovel plows, etc.

W. L. WALKER.

All parties indebted to me by note or account call at the Bank of Columbia and settle same at once.

4t. C. M. BREEDING.

If you owe me a note or account that is due, please call and settle same without further notice. I need what you owe me.

W. L. WALKER.

WANTED—A good fresh young cow. J. A. PARSONS, Columbia, Ky.

H. E. Simpson was given one year for robbing the post-office at Gentry's Mt. He will serve in the Atlanta penitentiary.

Ed. Z. T. Williams commenced a series of meetings at Chestnut Grove Church, in the Breeding country, last Monday night.

The following persons joined the Presbyterian Church last Sunday: Horace Walker, Hershel Baker, Jr., Olie Eager and George Hahn.

The Co-operation meeting of the Christian Churches will be held at Cane Valley, beginning on Friday before the fourth Saturday in May.

I am just receiving my line of Spring Clothing in the latest styles. See the Fauties' Catalogue. They fit perfectly. W. L. WALKER.

It is very evident that the planting of all Spring crops will be late. But little plowing has been done and no oats have been sown so far as we know.

Mr. W. W. Wilson and wife, who recently returned from Louisville, have gone to house-keeping in Mrs. Lou Miller's property, on Water street.

Last Saturday Henry Hudson let his speedy bay hit have its own way and the buck had now needs repairs. The colt reached home some time before Henry arrived.

Lost—A silver small gold watch. Think it was lost in the Zion neighborhood. LOU FRANKUM, Gadberry, Ky.

I will be in Columbia the first Monday in April with a full line of samples. If you want Spring suits, wait for me. T. L. HIGGENBOTHAM.

I am agent for the Hoosier Corn Drills, with or without fertilizer attachments. Call and see them and get my prices before you buy. W. L. WALKER.

The bird law passed by the last Legislature imposes a fine of $25.00 on non-residents to hunt quail in Kentucky. Both residents and non-residents are prohibited from killing quail for the market for two years.

A son of Wilks Chief, of a Lexington mare, is now in the community. He has the size, form and action and the best of eyes. See him before you breed. W. H. HUDSON & SON.

STRAYED OR STOLEN—A turkey hen from my premises near Cane Valley. Any news of their whereabouts will be thankfully received. L. P. MURRAY, Cane Valley, Ky.

If you want the genuine Oliver Chilled Plows or repairs, you can find them at W. L. Walker's. Beware of the imitation. I am the only agent in Columbia for the genuine Oliver. See that every piece is branded Oliver—no other genuine. W. L. WALKER.

Mrs. J. H. Ritchey, a prominent lady of Burksville, a sister of W. H. E. and Charley Alexander, died in Louisville last week. The remains were conveyed to Burksville for interment. Mrs. Ritchey went to Louisville for the purpose of undergoing an operation.

In the announcement made by Mr. C. E. Willis last week we failed to state that tuition in his Normal school would be $3.00 per month. Mr. Willis is a good teacher and those who desire to further prepare for teaching will not make a mistake by attending his Normal school at Glenfork.

Mr. M. L. Mitchell, of this place, bought of Mr. R. F. Paull, last week, the tract of land known as the "widow Dixon property," lying to the right of the Trane residence and farm, for $350. There is a dwelling upon the property which will be put in good repair and Mr. Mitchell will remove to it next Fall.

The green meadows and fragrant growing flowers, the cooling of the doves and the chirping of the small birds tell us that Winter is gone. The small boy with red in one hand and a cup of bait in the other, gliding down the pike to the "old fishing hole" is another indication that Spring, hogs and greens are here.

Mr. T. P. Jeffries Dead.

The subject of this sketch was born November the 1st, 1825, in Washington county and died March 18th, 1902, being a little over 77 years of age. He removed to Russell county when about 16 years old where he resided until 1860, at which time he removed to this county, buying a farm on Russell's creek where he spent the remainder of his life.

He was a consistent member of the Zion Baptist church, having joined that body many years ago and when the death summons came he passed over the silent river in the full triumph of the Christian faith.

The cause of his death was consumption which resulted from a severe spell of Lagrip, about three years ago. Up to that time he had been an unusually active man in farming and stock raising and was of great worth to his section of country.

We have known him for several years and from the date of our acquaintance down to his death we knew him as a plain, unassuming, big hearted man who made friends and not enemies. His energy and business qualities enabled him to accumulate and to live in comfort and to assist his children in the struggles of life.

Six children survive him. Wm. F. Jeffries, of Columbia, W. F. Jeffries, of Moberly, Mo., Mesdames Gwinn Bradshaw, H. P. Willis, W. F. Epperson and the afflicted son, Charles, all live in the Montpelier neighborhood. About fifty years ago he was made a Master Mason in the Jamestown Lodge and his devotion to the great principles of the order cropped out in many conversations he had with the writer.

He has told us of the many struggles in his early life, the hardships through which he has passed, of his Old Virginia ancestry and showed pride in them all.

Funeral services were conducted by Eld. Z. T. Williams, who spoke of the noble traits of his character and the blessing he had given the world in the uprightness of his children. The body was laid to rest in the family burying ground, with Masonic honors, by the side of his faithful consort who went to rest about two years ago. A large gathering of relatives and friends were present and joined in the last solemnity of the brotherhood who had met to pay the final tribute of respect and to show their appreciation of a fallen brother, a good citizen and an upright man and Mason.

A good man has gone but his family has the consolation of knowing that he left a good name, was held in high esteem by the many who knew him and that they have the sympathy of the people.

Resolutions of Respect.

Glenfork Lodge, No. 528, F. & A. M., Glenfork, Ky., March 19, 1902.

We called upon to pay the last tribute of respect to our beloved brother, Thomas P. Jeffries deceased. He was born in Washington county, Ky., in 1825, and died March 18, 1902. He was made a Mason in Russell Lodge No. 284, and was a consistent member.

He made a profession of religion in early life and joined the Baptist church and was faithful unto the end.

RESOLVED, That in his death his children have lost a loving father, the community a good and faithful citizen and the church an exemplary member.

2d: That we extend to his family our tenderest sympathies in their sad bereavement and bow in humble submission to the will of God.

3d: That we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Be it further resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be spread on the records of this lodge and a copy be sent to the Adair County News and Spectator for publication.

W. L. BROCKMAN, } Committee.
G. R. ABRELL,
H. K. TAYLOR.

Joe Frank Loy Killed.

On last Monday, March 17, the entire community was startled and made sad by the sudden and horrible death of this sketch.

While at work in the stove woods, near his home, assisted by his two brothers-in-law, Athan Fletcher and Herschel McClester, and his brother, Marcus, he was killed instantly by a tree falling on him which he and Athan had cut.

As the tree started to fall the boys ran off, thinking Joe would do the same, but on looking back and seeing it still standing they all said: "Run, Joe, run," but it seemed that death surrounded him, or for some unknown reason he failed to take one step that would have carried him beyond all danger, and in another instant the fatal deed was done, crushing his skull and the left side of his body.

The other boys say he had ample time to have saved his life, but didn't seem to make an effort to escape.

Joy, son of W. C. and Amanda Loy was born Sept. 23, 1873, hence he was years, 5 mo., 24 days old. Was married to Miss Callie Fletcher April 15, 1901, and since that day had ever been a faithful husband, kind and devoted to all who knew him. Even a day of his death seemed to be one of his happiest, for his mother was visiting him that day and after they enjoyed a hearty dinner together had sung several songs, Joe kissed baby boy, as usual, went back to work, and in one hour was brought back to his once happy home cold in death.

He left a wife, two little children, a father, a mother, two brothers and two sisters who deeply mourn his loss.

Joe was a man in whom everybody could fully confide, dealing justly and honestly with all men, but now he's gone, and we know God does all things well; then we say thy will be done. Oh Lord, and we trust him who is able to help us bear our trials and reunite us in that eternal home where parting never comes. X

Colored Deaths.

Last Thursday Wash Page, who was a reliable colored man of this county, died at his late home, near Columbia. He was about sixty-nine years old and served in the Federal army.

Monday night about 10 o'clock Green Bally breathed his last. He was a victim of pneumonia and was about fifty-three years old. He was an industrious man and for the past year worked as a press hand two days in each week in this office. He was reared in Columbia and will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

Several weeks ago the Gainsboro Telephone Company purchased the right to operate an exchange in the town of Columbia for $50.00, the franchise to hold good for twenty years. This bid was subject to the approval of the Municipal board, and that body on last Thursday night rejected the bid, and the franchise will probably be relet.

An attempt was made at Glasgow one night last week to destroy Mr. S. Goodman's produce house by fire. A box of shavings had been placed under the house and fired. The flames were discovered and extinguished before any damage was done. There is no clue. Mr. Goodman is a brother-in-law of Mr. Sam Lewis, this place.

Mr. Henry Todd and Mr. Geo. J. Hurt, of this county, who spent three weeks in Washington, D. C. returned home last week. These gentlemen are ex-Federal soldiers, and several years ago the name of Mr. Hurt was stricken from the pension roll. Upon this trip Mr. Hurt had proof sufficient to show that an injustice had been done him, and he was reinstated.

Messrs. Vincent Dockery, John McKinney and Dr. Holder, Russell county, were in Columbia one night last week, having in charge Mr. George McKinney, who had been adjudged a lunatic. They were en route for Anchorage. Mr. McKinney was returned from the asylum fifteen years ago, the doctors pronouncing him cured. A few days before starting the last time he became unmanageable and was considered dangerous.

Judge W. S. Stone and family bade their relatives and friends of Jamestown adieu last week and left for Monticello, their future home. They were accompanied by Mr. J. Bryan Stone, who has formed a partnership with his brother, W. S. Stone, the firm having already opened a law-office in Monticello. It is a strong firm, and there can be no doubt but it will receive a liberal share of the legal business of Wayne and adjoining counties. The Messrs. Stone are not strangers to the legal fraternity of Monticello nor to the representative citizens of Wayne county.

Last Monday week was the first day of the Green circuit court. The weather was cold and very disagreeable, but a fair sprinkling of the yeomanry were in Greensburg. Court was opened promptly by Judge Patterson and the grand jury put to work. It is our understanding that there were no murder cases to be tried and the civil docket was light. There were several convictions for selling liquor and other minor offenses. During the first day the merchants of the town did a good business.

Some of you may have heard of Jones' colt which laid all night near a spring branch, with his tail in the water and then run twenty-nine miles the next morning to get a drink. The water was there alright, but the colt started wrong. The "tail" points the moral. Now, don't be like the colt and start wrong—don't start right for Columbia and see N. Wood, at the Marcum Hotel who will put the water right at your kitchen door, so that you won't have to go twenty-nine miles for a bucket of water to get milk-fats.

Pedigo & Terry, of Warren county, were in Columbia last Wednesday and Thursday, buying fancy horses. They purchased from different parties six head ranging in price from $80.00 to $200.00. Columbia is a good horse market, buyers never failing to get something nice when they strike the town. Coffey Bros. keep up their part of the business and invariably have several good ones to let go when traders are around.

Mr. W. J. Caskey, who resided on Casey's Creek, died on Tuesday night of last week. He was about forty-four years old, and was sick for several months. He was a good citizen, and leaves three children. The deceased wife died three or four years ago. He was a Master Mason and was buried with the formalities of the order. The deceased was a son of R. A. Caskey, who was sheriff of Adair county about seventeen years ago.

A proposition to build a new jail will probably be submitted to the Fiscal Court of Russell county at an early day. The old jail has about lost its usefulness, and a new structure would be a credit to the county. Mr. Lilburn Phelps, who is the County Attorney of Russell was in our midst a few days ago. While here he surveyed our county with a view of suggesting a similar building should the Fiscal Court of his county conclude to build.

Eld. Durban, of the Christian Church, will preach in Columbia the second Sunday in April. He will also evangelize in Adair county for some months.

The surviving children of Mrs. Sarah Judd desire to return thanks to all those who kindly administered to their mother during her last illness.

W. H. HUDSON & SON.

LOUISVILLE = BARGAIN STORE

Has Just Opened an Elegant Stock of Goods in the Tutt Building, Columbia.

General Merchandise.

A General line of Merchandise, Clothing and Gent's Furnishing Goods will be made a specialty. A choice line of Ladies' and Gent's fine Shoes, in fact everything kept in a general store.

To The Public.

These goods were bought for cash and will be sold to the people of Adair and adjoining counties at the very shortest profits. We ask you to come and examine our stock and compare our prices. It is our intention to please the public.

STRULL & KWEIT.

VICTORY -- HOTEL,

10th and Broadway,

LOUISVILLE, - - - KENTUCKY.

This hotel has been refitted and is one of the nicest places in the city at which to stop.

GEORGE K. COSBY, Manager.

A gentleman named Gateswood, of Louisville, has rented one of the Newbold farms in this county and has removed to it.

The hats to be worn by the ladies this Spring and Summer will cast their shadows in all directions, and the wearers will have but little use for parasols.

Julia Reece, a little daughter of Dr. Robt. I. Blakeman, Indianapolis, has measles. The cook in Dr. L. F. Page's family, same city, is in the pest-house with small-pox and the family quarantined.

Mrs. Lizzie Taylor, widow of the late C. B. Taylor, and a sister of Mrs. U. L. Taylor, this city, died at her late home Monday night. She was an estimable lady, 72 years old, and a victim of heart trouble.

Rev. Will J. Harney, who did the preaching at the recent series of meetings held at the Methodist church in this place, will begin protracted services at Campbellsburg in a few weeks, a letter from him to Mr. J. W. Johnston, of this place, making that statement.

Mr. Irvyn Blair while working the road last Friday, dug up a grubworm that had started to turn into a sasafraz sprout. He sent it to this office and the sprout was fully an inch long and showed it to be sasafraz. The worm had begun to shrink. The sprout had started out of the worm near the mouth. This may seem strange but its true just the same and proves the correctness of the old contention that grub-worms produce sasafraz.

GREENSBURG.

The News man was here Monday and Tuesday soliciting patronage.

Joe Strull and wife are occupying the Dr. W. V. Tucker property.

W. G. Moss, who has been living in Lebanon for a few years, will soon remove to his property here on jail street.

Circuit Court began business last Monday with a moderately fair docket. Two murder cases are yet to be tried; Joe and Jim Cantrell for killing W. L. Mudd, and Tom Calhoun for killing Tilden Marr. Calhoun has had two trials and a verdict of guilty was rendered in each. At the first trial, the court granted him a new trial, because one of the jurors who tried the case was related to Marr. The second verdict was reversed by the higher court.

In the contest case for county judge of Green county, Elliott Graham (Democrat) won over his opponent J. H. Graham. The election returns showed that Elliott Graham was elected by a majority of twelve, and the election commissioners of the county, issued him certificate of election accordingly. When the case was called and the ballot boxes were opened and the vote counted Elliott Graham gained four votes, thus making his majority sixteen instead of twelve. The attorneys are preparing a bill of exceptions and the case will be carried to the higher court.

It is certainly a fact that we will have a second bank at Greensburg in the near future. The capital stock has been subscribed. An organization will be effected in a very few days.

MIDTOWN.

The health of this community is very good.

Corn planting time will soon be here. Some farmers have begun to prepare for their crops.

R. L. Tandy, and Smith & Nell passed through here last week with a fine bunch of cattle, hogs and sheep, en route for Greensburg.

W. R. Lyon, a noted grocery drummer, gave our merchants a call one day last week.

It will be remembered that Quarterly meeting will be held at this place the first Saturday and Sunday in April. G. A. Skaggs and wife were visiting Mr. Polk Salmon, of Bliss, Sunday.

Master Frank Townsend, a little son of J. C. Townsend, made a flying trip to Greensburg one day last week.

E. B. Cheatham, who has been sick is able to be out again.

P. T. McCaffrey, of Pleasant valley neighborhood, was here last week.

G. A. Beard, our blacksmith, is getting plenty of work. Mr. Beard is a fine workman and should be well patronized.

There will be preaching Saturday and Sunday by Rev. Gordon.

J. M. Rogers, of Greensburg, is visiting his parents G. T. Rogers and family.

J. W. Walker, of Greensburg, made a flying trip through here Wednesday.

JAMESTOWN.

Mr. J. B. Chamberlain and little son, of Birmingham, Ala., are visiting his parents at this place.

Messrs. A. P. Simpson, W. S. Knight, H. H. Dunbar, Quincy and Ruse Phelps were in Somerset last week on business.

Mr. Luther Phelps, who has been in school at Berea, returned home last Sunday.

Col. A. Morrison, our Representative returned home from Frankfort last Wednesday.

Judge W. S. Stone and family have moved to Monticello.

Stanley J., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Eastham, was quite sick last week.

Miss Josie Dockery has been real sick with measles.

Judge W. T. Sharp has taken charge of the post office at this place.

Mrs. Tinnie Wells, Mrs. S. Wilson and Miss Jennie Taylor, of Kimble, were in town last Thursday.

Mrs. Rilda Thomas, who has been visiting her grand-daughter, Mrs. J. P. Winfrey, returned home last Thursday.

Mr. J. D. Woodridge, of Somerset, was in town last Wednesday.

Messrs. Lilburn Phelps, Tom Morrison and Dr. J. S. Rowe returned from Frankfort last Thursday.

Miss Haidee Rowe returned home from Columbia last Saturday.

Mr. J. W. Johnston, of Columbia, was in town last week.

ROLLINGBURG.

Miss Jennie DeFever, of Louisville, is visiting friends here.

J. V. Heizer and wife are living in the house with S. I. Heizer.

J. I. Hudson is the grand juror from this section.

Miss Birdie Paxton is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Wilcox, at Exile.

A mule owned by A. W. Paxton, killed two of S. I. Heizer's sheep.

Mrs. S. W. Moore is suffering from a gun shot wound received several years ago and it is thought that her right arm will have to be amputated.

Prospects are good for Spring and Summer pastures.

Charley Gill visited A. C. Moss last Tuesday night.

L. S. Buchanan will start for Oregon in a short time.

Farmers are sowing oats and preparing to plant corn.

Virgil Gupion has purchased a Jersey cow for $400.

Ed Lowe will crop with James Lowe, Jr., this year. Jas. Lowe, Sr., will collect the school tax for Temperance district.

Chas. Forbis is again very bad health.

Mrs. Sarah Coffey is on the sick list.
